

Educators

Discover, Learn & Grow

Based on five educational platforms, the Glowing Hearts books introduce young readers to Canada's most inspiring athletes with a disability – recreational and elite – and shares their special messages about active living, self-esteem, teamwork, goals and dreams and much more.

Young readers savour the compelling sights of Paralympic competition and feel the pride of these athletes, encouraging them to draw on their own determination in pursuing their own goals and dreams whatever they may be.

Geared for youth ages 9 to 14 (Grades 4-8), Glowing Hearts serves as a valuable resource that will touch the hearts and minds of Canada's youth in an extraordinary way for years to come.

- Diversity – Celebrating Difference
- Physical Activity - Promoting Health & Wellness
- Character Education – Determination, Courage, Spirit
- Goals and Dreams – Big or Small
- Literacy – Fluency, Comprehension, Expression, Vocabulary

“An engaging read for students! Glowing Hearts is a tremendous book for teaching healthy, active lifestyles, diversity and character education to our children and our students. An excellent resource for teachers and parents. A treasure trove of positive messages from unsung Canadian heroes, kids and Paralympians alike!”

– Kim McCarthy
Teacher/Librarian

